

OHTA International Occupational Hygiene Certification, W503 module,

NOISE Measurement and Its Effects

May 9th, 10th, 12th,
16th, 17th, 19th 2022

40 hr course delivery

Virtually including an on-site 1-day practical

(special arrangements will be made for international persons/ persons who prefer not to attend in-person session)

With BOHS Exam:
TT $9,987 / US $ 1,469 VAT exclusive

Without BOHS Exam:
TT $8,023 / US $ 1,180 VAT exclusive

Facilitated by:

Mr. Andreas Wagner,
M.Eng., CIH, ROH
Golder Associates Inc.

with support from Projects and Technical Departments at ROSE
Environmental Ltd

COURSE AIM:

- To provide the student with an appreciation of the nature of noise hazards in the workplace and the effects of noise on people.
- To detail the approach in carrying out noise assessments in the workplace and in the general environment and to determine the significance of measuring data in relation to the various standards for compliance.
- To detail noise engineering controls and provide guidance on the selection of hearing protection devices.

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: APRIL 1ST, 2022

For more information, visit www.roseenvironmental.net

 868-638-ROSE (7673)

 garyt@roseenvironmental.net
elizabeth@roseenvironmental.net
nadine@roseenvironmental.net

